

CITY BOOKSHOP
New - Secondhand and Antiquarian Books

From the Library of a collector NORFOLK & SUFFOLK BROADS Part 3

Part 4 available in late September

Available to view in store from Friday 22nd July

10 Davey Place, Norwich, NR2 1PQ

TEL: (01603) 626113

www.citybookshopnorwich.co.uk

info@citybookshopnorwich.co.uk

63. [Anon.] On the Norfolk Broads. Pamphlet, [Great Eastern Railway], [London], 1910. 3-24,[6]pp Oblong 32mo

Modest soiling the black and white illustrated covers and with a small signature to the top right corner and a small tear to the bottom of the rear. Very good clean condition internally and appears complete with the front cover forming pages one and two.

Small pamphlet published by the Great Eastern Railway in Stratford, London for their customers and with ticket prices printed inside. £65

64. Shelley, Henry C. Untrodden English Ways. HB, Siegle, Hill & Co., London, 1910. (iii)-xv,[1],341,[1]pp 8vo

Fine bright green cloth boards with fine gilt decoration and TEG. Ink inscription to the ffepp and in very good internal condition. With 32 plates of photographs.

The chapter on the Norfolk Broads is on pages 215-226. It is supported by three photographic plates – Horning Ferry, On the Bure & Harvest in the Broads and Home from the Broads. £25

65. Poulton & Sons. Rivers & Broads of Norfolk and Suffolk. HB, Jarrold & Sons, London, [c. 1910]. 8vo

Gilt decorated red cloth boards in very good clean condition with a little rubbing to the edges.

A single folded sheet of Broads photographs with a mixture of one or two to a page. These are in fine clean condition. A laid down single folded Jarrolds publisher list is sound but tanned with some foxing.

14 titled photographs in total with full pages for Wroxham Broad, Horning Ferry, Oulton Broad and Thorpe Village. £25

66. [Anon.] Souvenir of the Broads. HB, [c. 1910]. (32)pp Oblong 8vo

Very good purple boards with minor edge wear and title in gilt to the front. 16 tipped in sepia views are all in fine condition as are the clean endpapers.

No publisher is indicated in this simple but good sized book of 16 tipped in titled Broads photos on brown paper. The photos measure approximately 7" x 5". £25

67. [Anon.] On the Norfolk Broads. Pamphlet, [Great Eastern Railway], [London], 1912. 24,[8]pp Oblong 32mo

A very good copy with minor soiling to the bright covers and clean inside with many illustrations. £65

68. Ayrton, William. Pen and Pencil Sketches in Norfolk and Suffolk. HB, William Clowes and Sons, Ltd., Beccles, [c. 1912]. (32)pp Oblong Large 8vo

The brown card boards with illustration on the front are slightly worn with wear also to the spine, and there is some minor staining to the bottom right front corner. The endpapers are unmarked and the text is in fine clean condition. In the rear folder are 8 loose tipped in colour plates on brown paper and these are all in very fine condition. Each is signed in pencil to the bottom left corner by W Ayrton. There are 8 Broadland scenes each with the title underneath the tipped in plate and also a list of plates within the text. All were by Ayrton and dated between 1902 and 1911. The text, also by Ayrton, extols the virtues of the natural delights of the Broads. An expensive book to produce it was presumably financed by Ayrton himself. £35

69. [Anon.] Twenty Views of Norwich, Wroxham, and the Broads. Pamphlet, W. H. Smith & Son, London, [1914]. [20]pp Oblong 32mo Dark green covers with minor soiling but little wear. Soiling to the margins but not generally affecting the photographs. The centre page is loose. Small slim pamphlet with 20 photographs of Norwich and the Broads presumably principally sold in the bookstalls of WH Smith. £12.50

70. [Anon.] Twenty Views of Norwich, Wroxham, and the Broads. Pamphlet, W. H. Smith & Son, London, [1914]. [20]pp Oblong 32mo

Faded green covers but largely clean with little wear. Inscription dated 1943 just inside the front cover. The photographs are in very good clean condition but the centre page is loose. £12.50

71. Nevill, Constance, The Ruined Abbey in the Marshes. PB, Jarrold & Sons, London, [1917]. [6],29,[1]pp 12mo

Soiling and foxing to the covers with wear to the overlap and a little loss to the bottom of the spine. Inside is stamped 'With Messrs. Duff, Morgan & Vermont's Ltd., Compliments and Greetings, Xmas, 1917.' There is modest foxing to the text but the eight plates of photographs are only slightly affected and overall the contents are very good.

A small booklet about the Broads and St. Benet's Abbey. £12.50

72. Money-Coutts, Hugh; Maxwell, Donald [Illustrator]. The Broads 1919. HB, John Lane, The Bodley Head, London, 1920. [2],27,[3]pp 8vo

There is some sunning to parts of the blue boards and a little wear to the corners. Otherwise the cloth backed boards are very good. Ex libris bookplate of J. Howard Kirk to the front pastedown and with tanning to the front and rear free endpapers. There is light foxing throughout but not affecting the fine frontispiece by Donald Maxwell.

A book of Broadland verse epitomising what the Broads represented to so many visitors after the first world war. £40

73. [Anon.] Annis's Guide to the Rivers & Broads of Norfolk & Suffolk. Pamphlet, [c. 1920s]. 40pp 12mo

Bright orange covers in very good condition with only slight wear. The contents are also in very good clean condition with minor rust stains only.

Issued on behalf of 'The Yarmouth and Gorleston Steamboat Company, Ltd.' for its passengers. These pamphlets are seen in 3 colours (the third being green). £15

74. [Anon.] Annis's Guide to the Rivers & Broads of Norfolk & Suffolk. Pamphlet, [c. 1920s]. 40pp 12mo

Blue covers are slightly worn, creased and soiled. The contents are very good with a little creasing and some rust stains. £15

75. [Anon.] Cruises Through Beautiful Broadland. Pamphlet, Powell & Co., Lowestoft, [c. 1920s]. 8pp 12mo

Bright clean red covers in very good condition. Tanning to the first and last page but otherwise the contents are very good with a single centre plate featuring advertising and seven photographs. Small promotional pamphlet on behalf of Lowestoft River Trips Limited. £20

76. Stephen, Geo. A. Books on the Broads: A Chronological Bibliography. Pamphlet, [Geo. A. Stephen], Norwich, 1921. 16pp 12mo

The delicate cover is tanned, slightly brittle and torn at the crease. Signature of Alan Hunter to the front cover. The title page and author index are also tanned but the contents are otherwise all very good. The 'original' bibliography of the Broads by the former City Librarian. Reprinted from 'The Norwich Mercury'. £25

77. Robinson, Jack. Broadland Yachting. PB, Jack Robinson, Oulton Broad, 2nd Edition, 1921. 110pp 12mo

The paper covers are in very good bright condition with very minor soiling and a little foxing. There is heavy foxing to the page edges and light to heavy foxing throughout the contents. Tipped in just inside is a tide table for Yarmouth Bar 1922 with a listing of Regatta fixtures. The 1921 tide table is printed to the verso of the rear cover. Other than the foxing the contents are in very good condition.

With frontis illustration of the author, "At your Service – Ashore or Afloat. Jack Robinson.", and an advert offering sailing lessons by him at the beginning of the section of yachting photos. £35

The illustrated paper covers have some wear including to the spine and are slightly rubbed and stained. Whilst there is minor tanning to the margins of the illustrations the contents are overall in very good clean condition. 24 page illustrated local advertising section to the rear.

Consists primarily of 100 photographs plus description, one to each page. A varied selection of photographs including one of Arthur Patterson courtesy of 'The Norwich Mercury'.

It is a companion to those on Norwich and the East Coast. £25

Comfort in Small Craft: A practical handbook of Sailing and Cookery. HB DW, Blake's Ltd., London, 1925. 6],128,[2]pp 12mo

The dust jacket has been laid down on modern card and whilst bright has significant loss to the rear and spine plus tears, wear and creases. There is soiling to the page edges but the blue cloth boards are in very good clean condition. There is minor foxing throughout, with more to the title page, otherwise it is very good internally.

A guide published by Blake's. They advise that having purchased the copyright from the author they have reduced the price from 3/6 to 2/6. £12.50

79. Chamberlin, Cecil R. Chamberlin's Guide to the Norfolk Broads (1926 Edition). PB, C. R Chamberlin, Norwich, 1st Edition, 1926. 109,[1]pp 8vo

There is some wear to the spine and minor soiling otherwise the covers are in very good condition. There have been repairs however with a new cream card present between the cover and title page. The contents including many photos and local adverts are in very good clean condition with only glue stains to the foreword indicating an updated foreword was laid down but later removed. There is a pocket just inside the front cover with certain contents indicated. It now has a single folded sheet supplement showing Low Water at Yacht Station, Great Yarmouth in 1928. Chamberlin deemed it wise to use qualified experts to contribute to his Broads guide and articles include 'The Broads – Art and Artists' by L. R. Nightingale, and 'The Marine Motor in Broadland' by "Adrian." £75

81. Robinson, Jack. Broadland Yachting, Motor Cruising, and Motor Boating, on the Broads. HB, Jack Robinson, Oulton Broad, 1928. 108,[4]pp 12mo

The mustard cloth boards are in very good condition with only minor staining and soiling. The endpapers are foxed but the contents including many plates are in very good condition though with cracking between the frontis plate and title page.

A guide to the Broads and sailing on it. With a frontis illustration of the author, "Motor Cruising or Sailing, I am at your Service, Jack Robinson." £35

82. Rackham, Wm. Leslie. Everybody's "Broadland". PB, Gibbs & Waller, Ltd., 2nd Edition, [1931]. 80pp 8vo

Clean and bright illustrated paper covers with wear to the centre crease and the slightly rusting staples. The contents are all in fine clean condition.

Guide to the Broads with illustrations by William Leslie Rackham, and full of his yarns and anecdotes. £45

83. Rackham, Wm. Leslie. Everybody's "Broadland". Paper recased on card, Gibbs & Waller, Ltd., 2nd Edition, [1931]. 80pp 8vo

This copy is recased on blue card with a blue cloth spine and the remainder of the original front cover laid on top. There is foxing to the earlier and latter pages otherwise the contents are in very good condition. £25

80. Stephen, Geo. A. 100 Pictures of the Norfolk Broads: Picturesque Waterways of East Anglia. PB, Jarrold & Sons, Ltd., Norwich, 1927. vi,100,[24]pp 8vo

84. Robinson, Jack. Motor Cruising on the Broads: Motor Cruising, and how to manage a Motor Boat, etc. Card Covers, Jack Robinson, Oulton Broad, 1934. 110,[2]pp 12mo

Bright pictorial card covers with only minor soiling to these and the page edges. Soundly bound and in very good internal condition with many photographic plates.

A practical handbook which shows that the way people holidayed on the Broads had rapidly changed since his earlier work. Includes a chapter 'Pen-Pictures of our splendid holiday' by Norman E. Game. £45

85. Miller, A. G. What to do on the Norfolk Broads 1936. Yachtman's Guide, Motor Tour Book and Holiday Handbook to Broadland. PB, A. G. Miller, 1936. 144pp 4to

The paper covers are bright with creasing plus a small chip to the bottom front corner. It has only minor wear and soiling and an inscription 'Return to Derek Young' on the front. The contents are in very good clean condition and loose inside is a Roys of Wroxham receipt for butter, pork pies etc. dated April 1938.

Full of photographs, maps and advertising including one for Crilly Airways 'To the Broads By Air!'. £75

86. Rudd, A. J. The Norfolk Broads: Fishing Yachting Cruising. PB, A. J. Rudd, 1937. 96pp Large 8vo

The paper covers are soiled with many creases and small tears, and have also been reattached to the contents by tape. Three new staples ensure all the contents are secured and there is minor foxing throughout the text. The contents are generally very good and include a diary of Broadland events the printed parts of which have not been added to. Inside the rear pocket is a creased and stained booklet of fishing instructions which is indicated to have come with the purchase of fishing tackle.

This guide includes many photos, maps and local adverts with a particular emphasis on fishing. £25

87. Housley, S. J. Sailing made easy and comfort in small craft[,] also how to run a motor cruiser: A practical handbook of sailing and cookery. HB DW, Blake's Ltd., 2nd Reprint of Revised Edition, 1937. [6],138pp 12mo

The dust jacket is largely bright but is soiled and there is some minor edge wear. The boards are bright and clean but there is soiling to the upper page edges. There is minor foxing to the early pages and more prominent foxing the page edges at the rear. Otherwise the contents are all very good. £12.50

88. Miller's What to do on the Norfolk Broads 1939. Holiday Handbook and Guide to Broadland. PB, Jarrold & Sons, Ltd., Norwich, 1939. 128pp 4to

The paper covers are bright but soiled and worn, with slight loss to some corners and loss to the top right rear corner of 4cm x 1cm. There is a little foxing to the first and last pages and minor creasing to the page corners but overall the contents are in very good clean condition and soundly bound with only slightly rusting staples.

A comprehensive guide full of photos, maps and advertising. Now incorporating Fishing in Norfolk Waters by A. J. Rudd. £75

89. Hewitt, Reginald James. "Wild Rose" The story of a cruising holiday. HB, [Privately Published], [Newcastle-on-Tyne], [1946]. [6],74pp 12mo

The brown cloth boards are soiled and stained with some rubbing. Signed by the author to the fep dated 1947. Minor cracking and staining but otherwise in very good internal condition with one plate of 'Wild Rose'.

A comprehensive narrative of a trip from the North East to and on the Broads. Hewitt advises he was a native of Norfolk and decided to purchase the craft within minutes of seeing it. £45

90. Colman Green, G. The Norfolk Wherry: Its Construction, Evolution and History. [Including] Supplement of Pictures. Selected from many of the originals painted by the Author G. Colman Green, M.R.S.T. HB DW, Geo R. Reeve, Wymondham, Revised Edition, 1953. xi,[1],50,[2],[4],12pp 8vo

The dust jacket is bright and unclipped but is soiled and has several chips and tears. There is a little tanning to the edges of the blue boards which are otherwise very good and clean. The contents including 12 pages of plates at the rear are in fine condition.

This is a revised edition of a publication first produced the Model Yachting Association in 1937. Included are a new foreword by Alfred Munnings, 2 pages of author's notes and many new drawings. £75

91. Griffin, Harry F. G. Quays Without Locks. Card Covers, R. B. Bradbeer Limited, Lowestoft, 1953. 72pp 12mo

Pictorial boards are sound with wear largely confined to the spine plus a little soiling. The contents including 24 black and white photographic illustrations are in fine condition.

Produced by new Broads boat Hire Company Bradbeer this guide includes diaries of several trips between March and October. £12

